MEMORANDUM FOR: Admiral Turner

VIA : John F. Blake

FROM : B. C. Evans
Executive Secretary

SUBJECT : External Distribution of International
Terrorism in 1976

25X1 1. On the enclosed cover of the unclassified monograph, International Terrorism in 1976, you directed two questions, one to George Cary and the other to Jack Blake, [] and Tony Lapham. Their responses are as follows:

QUESTION: Any Congressman/Committees particularly interested?

RESPONSE: (from Cary)

"...suggest we send to:

1. Senate Select Committee on Intelligence
House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
2. Senate Foreign Relations Committee
House International Relations Committee
3. House Government Operations Committee
Senate Governmental Affairs Committee
4. Senate Judiciary Committee
House Judiciary Committee
5. Selected members like Sam Nunn

25X1 Then [] could make available to his friends."

QUESTION: Should we mail to U.S. corporations with overseas activities?

25X1 RESPONSE: [] for Tony Lapham sees "no objection at all for providing this to U.S. corporations with overseas activities subject to the usual caveat that no favoritism is shown among recipients."

25X1 [] has no objections to this approach.

2. On the surface there appears to be no barrier to our conveying this publication directly to U.S. corporations who have overseas activities. However, one is faced with developing a mailing list for [] possible use. 25X1 In discussing this with SA/DDCI Cord Meyer, he notes that we have successfully handled the dissemination of information on terrorism via State and Commerce and he sees some pitfalls in a direct-mail undertaking... He has suggested that we clear with State and ask them to circularize the existence of this publication in the private sector noting that copies can be obtained from the Library of Congress or by direct request to the Department.

3. With your approval, we will proceed on this basis keeping in mind that George Cary is free to drop copies on those Committees and Congressmen indicated above.
